CASE NO. 24-80116-CR-CANNON/McCabe

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

VS.

RYAN WESLEY ROUTH,

Defendant.

/

GOVERNMENT'S SPEEDY TRIAL REPORT

Pursuant to the Court’s Scheduling Order and SDFL Local Rule 88.5, the Government submits this Speedy Trial Report. The defense has been consulted and agrees with the following calculations:

The Defendant was indicted on September 24, 2024 (ECF 21). On October 2, 2024, the Government filed an unopposed motion to designate the case as complex (ECF 30), which stopped the Speedy Trial clock. On October 18, 2024, the Court granted that motion in part, and also excluded all Speedy Trial time from the date of the Government's motion through the start of trial, currently set for the two-week period starting February 10, 2025 (ECF 51). Accordingly, at most seven days of non-excludable time (September 25-October 1) have elapsed, and the Speedy Trial clock is presently stopped and will remain stopped until the currently scheduled trial pursuant to the Court's Order.

Respectfully submitted,

MARKENZY LAPOINTE
UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
